

I.R.C.P. 82.c.3. Objection to Assignment to Magistrates.

Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 82(c)(3). Objection to Assignment to Magistrates.

Any irregularity in the method or scope of assignment of a civil action or proceeding to any magistrate under this rule 82, and sections 1-2208 and 1-2210, Idaho Code, and all objections to the propriety of an assignment to a magistrate are waived unless a written objection is filed before the trial or hearing begins. No order or judgment is void or subject to collateral attack [attack] merely because rendered pursuant to an improper assignment to a magistrate.

(Adopted July 2, 1976, effective October 1, 1976; amended March 20, 1985, effective July 1, 1985.)
